

BizAtomic Launches Common Sense SEO: Modular SEO Services for Small Business

Common Sense SEO provides a full range of SEO marketing services including Website Optimization, Link Building, PPC Campaign Management, RSS Feeds, SEV Press Releases, Keyword Research, and Copywriting. The Common Sense SEO Program Is Being Introduced with Quick Start Packages

St. Augustine, FL (PRWeb) April 5, 2006-- BizAtomic, a national leader in website design and e-commerce development, today announced the release of Common Sense SEOtm Marketing Services for small businesses. Common Sense SEO provides SEO services in modular form. Each module implements a different SEO tactic for driving qualified traffic to a website. By breaking down the SEO marketing effort into modules, it becomes more flexible for the client by meeting time critical needs while keeping costs manageable and within a controlled timeframe.

“SEO is important for any business requiring an online presence, be it large or small, new or old. SEO is an ongoing process, which needs investment in time and a keen interest in search pattern changes of the target audience,” said John Ragosta, Vice President of BizAtomic.

Since every online business must face the reality that their success is somewhat tied to their position in the Search Engines, BizAtomic is introducing Common Sense SEO Quick Start Packages. The Quick Start packages have the objective of getting a client started immediately on improving their search engine rankings. The main component of the Quick Start Packages is a Link Building campaign.

No matter how a client’s long-term SEO strategy evolves, a Link Building campaign will be part of it. Common Sense SEO says do not waste time getting started. Along with the Link Building Campaign, the Common Sense SEO Quick Start packages include focused webpage optimization, usually one or two pages with a targeted number of keywords.

Once a client chooses a Common Sense SEO Quick Start Package BizAtomic develops a long-term strategy revolving around the full offering of Common Sense SEO Services modules tailored to their unique situation. An optimal combination of search engine marketing services like SEO, PPC and Link Building will bring down investment costs and maximize your ROI.
