(PRWeb) June 20, 2006 -- Industrial Classifieds and Auction (www.industrialcanda.com) has recently re-designed and have much improved our websites functionality. The new design is now a snap to navigate.

With all areas easily accessible from the “My Account” section, users can now manage both classifieds and auction listings in one convenient area. This new design allows the user to manage there listings in a more productive way, saving them both time and money.

The new search feature also allows visitors to search both classifieds and auction listings at the same time. Both business and or individual listings. Visitors can even search for products or services up to 500 miles of any given zip code.

The company also has joined with Google base oodle. With this service users who place listing in our Industrial classifieds and auction website will also receive the benefit of having there listing show up on Google base oodle search service as well.

Industrial Classifieds and Auction is wholly owned by Arrow Leads Inc. a privately held company.
