

Academic Financial Solutions Announces New Private Education Loans and Private Student Loan Consolidation Products

Leading student loan consolidation company, Academic Financial Solutions, now offers private education loans and private consolidation loans, adapting to the changing student loan industry.

Tampa, FL (PRWeb) November 19, 2007 -- Academic Financial Solutions, a leading student loan consolidation company based in Tampa, Florida, is now offering private loans and private consolidation loans, staying ahead of the curve in the ever-changing student loan industry.

“Based on a huge demand for these private loan products as well as the dramatic changes in federal student loan consolidation industry, augmenting our product line makes a lot of sense.” said Michael Babb, President of Academic Financial Solutions, LLC. “Many students exhaust their federal assistance before completing their education. This gives them the alternative they need to achieve or exceed their educational goals, not only with an undergraduate degree but also presenting the availability of a Master’s or Doctorate’s degree as well.”

Private education loans are one of the most affordable and fastest growing ways to pay for college. These loans are designed to fit the student’s specific education needs and can be used for tuition and fees, room and board, books and supplies, and other education related expenses. This financial assistance is critical when federal loans, grants and scholarships do not cover the entire cost of higher education. “After college, the student loan borrower may face the reality of re-paying multiple, high interest rate private loans,” stated Babb. “Consolidating those private loans soon after graduation allows the borrower to redirect those savings into an effective job search, a new car or home. They could even improve their credit scores if they use the savings to pay down their debt. Whether it’s private or federal loans, student loan consolidation makes a lot of sense.”

Consolidation loans provide an opportunity for lower monthly payments by combining private student loans into one manageable payment. This allows the borrower to keep more of what they’ve earned with less money out of pocket each month. Consolidating their private education loans can also allow the borrower the option of dropping their co-signer from their loans. From its inception, Academic Financial Solutions established a reputation of serving the best interests of students and borrowers and has saved borrowers millions of dollars by reducing their loan payments through student loan consolidation.
